

Since 2014 we are supporting important projects from German financial institutions in software development and project management. We map business processes based on customer requirements in existing systems or implement new software solutions.

(junior/senior) software developer (m/f/d) financial industry

📍 Leipzig, Berlin, Münster

📅 asap

∞ indefinite

🕒 fulltime

What you can expect

- You are part of a team responsible for programming banking processes
- You will learn the programming language Clojure
- You plan, develop, and implement processes in Clojure/Java and document all changes
- You will experience great support from your team and a great feedback culture

Your profile

- Successfully completed training as IT specialist (m/f/d) or studies in software engineering
- You have basic programming skills, preferably in Java or C++
- Ideally, you have financial knowledge
- You are fluent in English

Our offer

- Indefinite employment, industry standard salary, weekly German language course
- If necessary furnished apartment for transition period included
- 27 days annual leave increasing by 1 day each year to a maximum of 30 days
- 40 hours a week with flexible working hours with attendance from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm
- Overtime is compensated in spare time
- Training on the job with mentor, flat hierarchies and an informal working atmosphere
- Various leisure events such as team events, summer party, game evenings and much more
- Contribution to gym fees and health/self-care activities

Contact, Information and cu soon @ www.jSERVICE.de

Applications are welcome at karriere@jservice.de or via our application portal at www.jservice.de.